

GEM NGA-10 & NGA-50 Audio Transmitter

NGA-10 with metal enclosure

Features

- Stand alone, field-ready system
- Very small size of the transmitter
- High sensitivity of the microphone
- Low current consumption (10mA NGA-10)
- Shrink wrap or metal enclosure
- Work with standard communications receiver
- Standard analog output
- Excellent sound accuracy

NGA-10 with shrink wrap

Applications

- Designed for covert audio surveillance
- Ideal for body-worn applications
- Close protection monitoring
- Standard indoor surveillance operations
- Homeland security
- Suited for use in SWAT & tactical task forces
- Temporary deployments

NGA-50 with
metal enclosure

The GEM NGA-10 & GEM NGA-50 miniature analog transmitter is designed for covert audio surveillance. Several versions are offered with shrink wrap or metal enclosure, with choice of internal or external microphone.

Due to its tiny size the transmitters can be concealed in various items. The GEM NGA-10 & NGA-50 transmitter is suitable for the most miniature types of camouflage, making it an indispensable intelligence gathering tool for nearly every scenario.

The GEM NGA-10 & NGA-50 provide excellent transmission quality, making them the ideal choice for body-worn applications, close protection monitoring and temporary deployments.

The NGA-10 & NGA-50 provide high spectral purity and are available on several fixed UHF frequencies. ■
